

Society, foundation kick off lecture series

Paul McGrath

(From left to right) Robert Schwartz, senior policy adviser for the Consulate General of Israel; professor Eugene Kontorovich of Northwestern University School of Law; and Mitchell B. Goldberg, of Lawrence, Kamin, Saunders & Uhlenhop LLC and a member of The Decalogue Society of Lawyers board of managers, attended the lecture "Barricades and Blockades: The International Legal Perspective on Israel's Position on Gaza," which was organized by The Decalogue Society of Lawyers and the Decalogue Foundation and held Wednesday at Holland & Knight LLP. It featured Kontorovich, who teaches constitutional and international law. This is the first lecture in the series on legal issues affecting Israel.
